SEVERAL MOVES ON FOOT

The midwinter meeting of the K. L. T. baseball league, at which the decision of the cities to compose the league this season will be arrived at, will be held at the Palmer house tomorrow and there will be representation from every city in the league and from other towns, it is understood.

There is a move on foot, it is said, to shelve Secretary Farnbaker and also one to admit Princeton, Ind., and Owensboro, Ky., and to drop Hopkinsville and Clarksville. Hopkinsville and Clarksville are considered poor paying towns, where Sunday ball is prohibited, and the progressive towns want to make the guarantee in gate receipts such that all towns must stand or fall on their own patronage.

There are several moves on foot which will come as a surprise when projected at the meeting tomorrow, but the league will likely settle the membership question tomorrow once and for all.

The matter of taking in Marion and Carbondale, Ill., is generally opposed because it would make the league a northern one with more cities north of the Ohio than south, but this is a matter of little consequence and will cut no figure in the matter of settling the league membership.

The Cairo baseball association intends to carry the "dead weight" of the non-playing clubs on its shoulders no more and at a meeting last night held in Cairo decided to send a delegation composed of Mayor Claude Winter, Messrs. W. P. Greaney, Joseph Stégala, R. E. Powers and P. C. Scullion to the meeting of the league here tomorrow to offer an amendment providing for the guarantee of $40 per game to the visiting team, rain or shine, or Sunday, in lieu of 50 per cent gate receipts.

Cairo will make a fight for this and will stand for a four team league rather than take in two non-supporting towns.

MCKINLEY DAY.

Carnations Will Be Much in Evidence Tomorrow.

The American Carnation Society has elected Peter Fisher of Ellis, Mass., president and adopted a resolution to officially recognize Carnation day, January 29, in honor of President McKinley's birthday.

In memory of the late President McKinley at least 3,000,000 people will wear a carnation tomorrow, the occasion being the anniversary of his birth. One year ago the custom of wearing a carnation was observed here but not very generally. It is expected that more people will take notice of the custom than heretofore and florists should have large sales of the flower.

Shortly after the death of President McKinley Louis Reynolds, an Ohio man, brought out the idea of organizing a league, the purpose of which was to enthrone the people into wearing the carnation on McKinley's birthday because of the president's great love for the carnation. The league was organized and now has a membership of more than 3,000,000 and is still growing.

LOOKED FOR BODY.

Rural Mail Carrier Supposed to Have Been Drowned Turns Up All Right.

A great deal of excitement was created in the neighborhood of Seventh and Elizabeth streets yesterday when patrolmen dragged an abandoned city well with grab hooks for Rural Mail Carrier Boyd Shemwell.

It seems Mr. Shemwell's horse and buggy, or one thought to be his, was found near the well with evidence of a runaway and a hat picked up near the well which resembled that of Mr. Shemwell's caused the residents to think that his horse had run away and thrown him down the well.

Mr. Shemwell was out on his route at the time and knew nothing about the matter until he reached home last night. The police did not think it possible for anyone to fall into the well, which is pretty securely boxed up, and their supposition soon proved to be correct.
